Copenhagen, Auguſt 6, N. S. On Thurſday the 1ſt Inſtant an extraordinary Council was held at Fridericksbourg, to which the Margrave of Culmbach, General Scholten, General Numſen, and Count Daneskiold were admitted. All the Officers, who have lately had Leave of Abſence, are now commanded to return forthwith to their reſpective Regiments. The Prohibition of Exporting Horſes, which was to have expired the laſt Day of July, is prolonged to the End of December next. Hague, Auguſt 13, N. S. The Report of Prince Charles's having paſt the Rhine proves to have been premature, and was probably occaſion'd by his Highneſs's having ſent the Prince of Eſterhaſi and General Nadaſti with a large Body of Huſſars and Pandours over that River to levy Contributions in Alſatia, which whole Province is ſaid to be in the utmoſt Conſternation at the preſent Poſition of the Confederate Armies.

Hague, Auguſt 16, N. S. By our laſt Letters from Francfort we are inform'd, that his Britannick Majeſty, with the Army under his Command, had paſſed by that City on Saturday laſt, in order to paſs the Rhine, as the Auſtrian Troops had already done, and that Prince Charles continued moving up that River, looking for a proper Opportunity of croſſing the ſame: That his Highneſs encamped the 9th at Wilſtat over againſt Kehl, and propoſed to do ſo the 11th at Ettenheim, the 12th at Endinge, and the 13th at Jochsberg, a little ſhort of Bryſach.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 9.

Lieutenant-Colonel Cracherode, who commanded the Land Forces which went abroad in Commodore Anſon's Squadron; and Captain Michell, who commanded one of the Ships of that Squadron, are arrived in England from Canton in China, having taken their Paſſage in an Eaſt India Ship. They left the Commodore in good Health, and give an Account, that in January laſt he had obtained Leave from the Government there to be ſupplied with Artificers and Neceſſaries for refitting his Ship; but they think ſhe will ſcarce be able to get round the Cape of Good Hope this Seaſon.
